

[Instructions] :

K3 very simple to use, in the most common router dial-up router, plug and play!

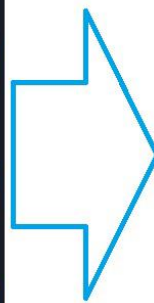

First, the K3 with a network cable to the router, wait, yellow light, K3 online success.

Second, the phone scan code installed APP, run, account number and password on the product label, you can control the network completely without any settings.

Iphone mobile phone but also to Apple Store search for "remote cloud" Downloading APP.

Click on the "switch" to switch to switch control page, you can phone the remote lights up!

K3 connection very flexible connection to different needs are different, almost can control all electrical equipment, even non-electrical appliances also can be controlled.

The following are several common connection:

